

Location

Situated in the South of Mauritius, next to the coastal village of Bel Ombre, Kaz'alala is surrounded by a picturesque and historic landscape spreading across 2,500 hectares of flora and fauna within Heritage Bel Ombre. Our hosted B&B is just steps away from an elegant 19th century Château and minutes from the sand and waves of a pristine beach.

Our location, service and pricing all combine to provide great value to our guests and entice them to sample the typical Mauritian experience while connecting with nature.

Kaz'alala is the perfect place for families, couples and groups of friends as well as anyone on the lookout for wildlife adventures and new experiences.

Concept

Kaz'alala is composed of four self-catering houses with a total of 19 well-appointed bedrooms.

Once forming part of a sugar plantation housing camp, they are scattered in a lush tropical garden. Each of them has its own theme and has been thoughtfully renovated with a fresh design to create an inviting, authentic home while maintaining the sense of place.

Kaz'alala is a place full of character and history, yet subtle enough to appeal to more sophisticated tastes. It offers a blend of history and modernity through the use of the latest digital tools to assist our guests while meeting the tech-savvy traveller's expectations.

Kaz'alala boasts a distinctive personality and individual sense of style. Our philosophy is to keep it simple and authentic – but still well-appointed and comfy.

Our host Marjorie and her team make it a point to welcome every guest with warm hospitality, in a most natural and friendly way. Our guests are not just numbers to us and we make sure to look after each of them with equal care and discreet attention.

Our Houses

Each of the four houses at Kaz'alala is evocative of a time and place. Dressed in the colours of the national flag, they combine traditional Mauritian architecture using local natural materials such as marine and coco-fibre ropes and rattan furniture with contemporary amenities to provide guests with comfort and convenience.

A colour of the Mauritian flag is used for each house:

- Red: Cabane du Cardinal borrows its colour theme from the distinctively red head and breast of the Mauritius fody.
- Blue: Lakaz Lamer, literally The House of the Sea, pays tribute to the marine heritage of Bel Ombre.
- Yellow: Cabane du Soleil, the Sun Shack reflects the sun-drenched atmosphere of vacation time in Mauritius.
- Green: Lakaz La Vie, literally The House of Life. From the roadside to the mountaintops, green is the predominant colour throughout the year in Bel Ombre.

All four of them have their own self-catering kitchen, living and dining facilities, four bedrooms with en suite bathrooms and toilets as well as a shared terrace.

The living room of each house opens on to a spacious dining room with a large rectangular table in its centre. The self-catering kitchen has all you need to prepare and store your food.

Outside in the lush tropical courtyard, you will find a swimming pool with wooden decking as well as a small garden bar, a lounge area and an outdoor cooking area with a firepit to enjoy dinner on warm evenings.
